Topper's Tale

Advice from a General

ALL alcoholics are well acquainted with the "Dutch courage" type of drinker, the guy who takes belt after belt because he thinks it gives him the nerve to do things he wouldn't do without a boost from old John Barleycorn. It rouses him to feats of great courage, he likes to believe. Well, that was me in my drinking days.

In 1947, I was invited by a boozing pal to a banquet given in honor of a famous military figure. Naturally we had to take on a large load beforehand to make sure we'd appreciate the significance of the occasion.

While we fueled up in the hotel bar, my friend told me about his son, who was away at military school and rather homesick.

I recall when I was only a few months sober and working at an antique store located only a few blocks from a recovery clubhouse at 26th and Broadway, in Santa Monica, California. The most exciting thing at that club was a checkerboard. Yet when the newcomer heebie-jeebies began their chaos and imagined torture, I would forgo lunch, and make a b-line for that club—nervously shaking and head spinning like a top! Yet, upon entry a mysterious calmness would take over. Soon a much-needed AA style conversation would erupt. Following that brief experience, I would return to work—without eating a bite, mind you, refreshed and in a pleasant frame of mind.

I have seldom missed meetings but there was a time during my LA taxi driving career where had to pay for the cab 24/7 because my associate driver had a part in a movie for thirteen days. So, working both shifts allowed no time for meetings, but to be sure. I stopped by one or another clubhouse for a few minutes to receive my share of the joyous AA spirit.

I believe that spirit is what brings newcomers back to meetings on a regular basis. That is why I find it important to always greet the new person and make them feel welcome until they begin to feel this life saving spirit deep in their bones. In Los Angeles many of the 90-minute meetings have a short break at halftime I believe the surreptitious reason for this is to get to know the new person and perhaps invite them out to a coffee shop after the meeting. The AA spirit flows through that conversation as well! Just because I can't see it doesn't mean it isn't there! It works—it really does! ~ ~ Bob S.

The "Clubs" and "Rooms" listed here are not A.A. Clubs. A.A. DOES NOT HAVE CLUBS! A.A. neither endorses nor opposes such clubs. These are social clubs established by groups or individuals who are themselves recovering alcoholics. The A.A. group meeting at the club is available to any alcoholic - club member or not. The group is separate from the club and pays a fair rent for the use of the club facilities. Even though the group meets in a club that may be composed exclusively of A.A. members, and many members of the group may be club members, too, the relationship of the A.A. group itself to the club should be the same as it would be to a church, hospital, school, etc., in which it might rent space for its meetings.

We got there late, of course, with the festivities already under way, and found ourselves stuck behind a stout cordon of husky cops. Behind them we could catch a glitter of camera lights and a blazing sea of white shirt-fronts.

I was inspired. My Dutch courage was roused to a high peak. I spoke brusquely to one of the policemen. "Lend me a pencil," I said in a tone that suggested this was an order, not a request.

After he meekly handed me a pencil, I brushed him aside, strode right up to the speakers' table and accosted the guest of honor. He listened patiently as I explained about the son of my friend who was homesick and how happy he'd be to get the signature of so great a man.

The guest grinned a famous grin and asked the lad's name. I told him.

A moment later I joined my stunned friend. "Here you are," I said, with studied casualness, handing him a scrap of paper. On it was scrawled: "To Jimmy: Stick with it. It isn't so bad.--Dwight D. Eisenhower."

I felt a rough hand grab me by the shoulder and my pal and I were steered to the nearest door. "If I'da known you was just another autograph hound," the cop said, breathing fire, "I'da . . .I'da . . .well, I wouldn'a loaned you that pencil!"

Spirituality and Money

"While the work of the group treasurer often involves many details, it is important to remember that the money the treasurer oversees serves a spiritual purpose: it enables each group to fulfill its primary purpose of carrying the A.A. message to the alcoholic who still suffers. This is the fundamental work of A.A. and to continue it the group must keep its doors open. The group treasurer is an important part of this Twelfth Step work."
