

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: July 8, 2026

Greater Milwaukee Central Office Alcoholics Anonymous is committed to protecting the privacy of everyone who visits our site. We understand the importance of confidentiality and respect the tradition of personal anonymity that is fundamental to Alcoholics Anonymous.

Information We Collect

You may visit this website without providing any personal information. If you choose to contact us through a contact form or by email, we may collect information such as your name, email address, phone number, or any other information you voluntarily provide.

We collect only the information necessary to respond to your request, answer your questions, or provide information about Alcoholics Anonymous meetings, events, and services in the Milwaukee area.

How We Use Your Information

Any personal information you provide is used solely to:

- Respond to your inquiries.
- Provide requested information about local AA meetings or services.
- Communicate regarding volunteer or service-related matters, if requested.
- Improve our ability to assist visitors to the website.

We do not sell, rent, trade, or otherwise share your personal information with advertisers, marketing companies, or other third parties. Information will only be disclosed if required by law or necessary to protect the security of our website.

Website Analytics and Cookies

Our website may collect limited, non-personally identifiable information, such as browser type, device type, pages visited, referral source, and general usage statistics. This information helps us understand how visitors use the website so we can improve its content and functionality.

If cookies are used, they are intended only to enhance website performance and user experience. You may disable cookies through your web browser settings if you prefer.

Third-Party Links

This website may contain links to other websites, including Alcoholics Anonymous service entities or community resources. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of external websites. We encourage visitors to review the privacy policies of any third-party websites they visit.

Email Communications

If you contact us by email or through our website, we will use your information only to respond to your inquiry. Email communication over the internet cannot be guaranteed to be completely secure, so please avoid including sensitive personal or medical information in your messages.

Respect for Anonymity

Anonymity is a spiritual foundation of Alcoholics Anonymous. Greater Milwaukee Central Office Alcoholics Anonymous is committed to respecting the privacy of all members, visitors, and individuals seeking information about recovery. We do not publish personal information about AA members without their permission and encourage all users to respect the anonymity of others.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated periodically to reflect changes in website practices or legal requirements. Any updates will be posted on this page with a revised effective date.
