BEYOND MERE SOBRIETY, STEP 7

Humbly asked him to remove our shortcomings.

Severe words, but what a challenge!

If we alcoholics can bring ourselves to accept it, we have reached the starting point for complete readjustment beyond the stage of mere sobriety.

Assuming we have put some honest effort into applying the first 6 Steps of the AA program to our individual needs, we have taken some big strides on the road back from despair. We have already accepted belief in a Higher Power, made a decision to let God, as we understand Him, take charge of our lives, made an inventory, admitted our faults and have become ready to have God remove our "defects of character." Certainly, it is logical we should next ask Him to remove the maladjustment's and wrong thinking that caused our bad drinking habits and made us totally inadequate human beings.

The moral inventory, if "searching and fearless," has indicated to us the nature of most of our shortcomings and the admission of these "to God, to ourselves and to another human being" has brought them into proper perspective so that we have a very good idea of where we need God's help in getting off to a fresh start in life.

There is, however, additional significance to the 7th Step. It, surely, is the connecting link between the first 6 Steps and the last five.

Before we are able to make adequate amends to other human

STEP SEVEN IS A CONCLUSION

Step Seven Prayer: "My Creator, I am now willing that you should have all of me, good and bad. I pray that you now remove from me every single defect of character which stands in the way of my usefulness to you and my fellows. Grant me strength, as I go out from here, to do your bidding." Amen.

There was true humility and deep surrender by asking God to "take all of me," both the "good" and the "bad." This was an admission that I could not trust myself to differentiate between the two. I almost drank after five months sobriety before going into the 12-step process with my sponsor. He wisely pointed out the obvious fact that my mind lied to me—it was not to be trusted! I needed a higher power (God) to see the truth about myself. What an ego-shattering revelation! Yet, it was necessary to give up on myself and trust God to take over my recovery. Someone said: "Self cannot rid self of self with self."

I had asked God to remove the "bondage of self" in Step Three with only a scant idea of what that was, but Steps Four and Five provided a better view of my defects of character and shortcomings. (By the bye, Bill W. stated that these words were to be used simultaneously or in the same context—please note that Step Seven on page 58 uses the word "shortcomings" rather than "defects of character" as in the prayer above).

It is important to notice that the Seventh Step prayer concludes with the word "Amen." Meaning "So be it" or indicating a conclusion. However, there is no "Amen" following the Third Step Prayer, or those in Steps Four, Five and Six! Why?

I think because Step Seven finally concludes the process, e.g.: In Step Three we asked to be relieved of the bondage of self, but we did not know what that was till we did Steps Four and Five. But now—in Step seven—we know more precisely what we are asking God to remove from us as we go out to do his bidding. The process has been concluded, however, more will be revealed.

beings for harm we have done them as the result of our alcoholic obsession; we must first be in a position to convince them of our sincerity. Unless our own conscience is good, how can we be convincing to anyone else? And can we be at peace with ourselves unless we have tried, in all humility, to get in tune with the directing Power of the Universe? Without first taking the 7th Step, it would seem difficult to persuade ourselves of our ability to right, in any appreciable measure, the damage we have done to our family, our friends or our employers and if the job of making amends is undertaken only half-heartedly, we may run into our old enemy, frustration.

The 7th Step takes us still further into the program, for the 10th Step suggests we continue "to take personal inventory" and when we are wrong to "promptly" admit it. But to whom? First to God (refer again to the 5th Step), then to ourselves, and finally, now in proper frame of mind, to the injured person.

Again, the 11th Step asks us "through prayer and mediation to improve our conscious contact with God, as we understand Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out." Knowledge of His will for us would seem hard to attain without admission to Him that we haven't done very well on our own and now have an honest desire to clean house with His help.

Finally, are we ready (the 12th Step) to help others, until, in all humility, (a tough word for any alcoholic but, properly construed, an entirely honorable one), we have asked that our own faults be removed? -A. T., Greenwich Village Group, New York City.

SAFETY CARD FOR A.A. GROUPS

(The General Service Office has made this optional statement available as an A.A. service piece for those groups who wish to use it.)

Suggested Statement on Safety

Our group endeavors to provide a safe meeting place for all attendees and encourages each person here to contribute to fostering a secure and welcoming environment in which our meetings can take place. As our Traditions remind us, the formation and operation of an A.A. group resides with the group conscience. Therefore, we ask that group members and others refrain from any behavior which might compromise another person's safety.

Also, please take the precautions you feel are necessary to ensure your own personal safety, for example, walking to your car in a group after a meeting. If a situation should arise where someone feels their safety is in jeopardy, or the situation breaches the law, the individuals involved should take appropriate action. Calling the proper authorities does not go against any A.A. Traditions and is recommended when someone may have broken the law or endangered the safety of another person.

Service Material from the General Service Office

"...and so the big, bad wolf made a list of all the persons he had harmed...."

SELF-SUPPORT

The Seventh Tradition states that Alcoholics Anonymous is self-supporting through our own contributions. The contributions help to cover the group's expenses. But the Seventh Tradition is more than simply paying for rent and other group expenses. It is both a privilege and a responsibility of individual groups and members to ensure that our organization, at every level, remains forever self-supporting and free of outside influences that might divert us from our primary purpose.

The monetary amount of each contribution is secondary to the spiritual connection that joins us in unity with A.A. groups around the world.

Fox Point Group 86: Reaching Out, Join Us on Zoom Monday Evenings.

We are doing a group inventory, looking at ways in which we can be more accessible.

Current members with a wide range of sobriety, join our weekly meetings to discuss topics that impact all people in recovery thus providing a healthy balance for all.

We warmly welcome all genders, sexual preferences, ethnicities, and ages.

We meet on-line with ZOOM Monday Nights at 8:00 and will do so until we resume our "live" meetings at the North Shore Congregational Church in Fox Point.

Stop on by! We open up around 7:45 and begin at 8:00. If you are shy about "Zooming," just come on in and listen. It's Alcoholics Anonymous.

You will find a warm welcome to a lively and amiable group living one day at a time.

Gifts of Sobriety

When the Promises of Recovery Come True

"Why try?" we sometimes ask ourselves when faced with the uncertainties and hard work of recovery. But the answers are all around us, in the rich and spirited lives of those who have made the journey before us, each one a member of the joyful possibilities that await. These possibilities come alive in Gifts of Sobriety, a book that gives immediate meaning to the Big Book's promise: "We are going to know a new freedom and a new happiness."
