From the Grass Roots

By: G. F. B. | Willimantic, Connecticut

KNOWLEDGE FOR THE TAKING

THERE is an old Chinese proverb to the effect that "Knowledge is obtained from others. . .Wisdom we must acquire ourselves."

How perfectly this applies to the AA program. Simply for the taking, we have the knowledge, based on the experiences of the first 100 members of AA. They set down in the Twelve Steps, the mechanics of the operation of rehabilitation, as they did it, and saved us the wear and tear of formulating a procedure. We know that it worked for them, so we know that it will work for us. Their knowledge and the ramifications of it, as obtained through the daily and weekly power of association in AA, gives us a positive and workable procedure.

However, if we do not have or do not acquire the wisdom to apply this knowledge, then we will have fallen far short of our objective. If we are wise to the point of realizing that the First Step is but a "stepping stone" to a new way of life and that sobriety is only the beginning, then that wisdom will allow the other eleven Steps to seep into our way of living and give the security that makes possible, freedom from fear and anxiety.

A Miracle? Perhaps

By: A. L. M. | Seattle, Washington

Faith Is the knowledge of belief

I KNOW that we who have achieved through AA the sobriety we sought but could not find alone, have felt that nothing less than a miracle had happened to us.

We felt ourselves a thing apart, doomed to the half-alive gutter-existence of the drunkard. For we were in an emotional gutter, and don't think for a moment we liked it.

We had long since ceased to drink for pleasure. We had even ceased to drink as a career. We drank in self-defense because we could not help ourselves. We lived in our own dark little world of remorse, fantasy, misery and fear.

True, we found a new way of life in AA. Indeed, it was as if we were born again. In this respect, perhaps it was a miracle. We had lost our families, our friends and our livelihood through alcohol; through AA, they were miraculously returned to us.

A miracle? AA a miracle?

Perhaps, but maybe "miracle" isn't just the word.

You see, our families' love and our friends' regard had not turned to hate. They had only hated the things we did. Once this AA 'way of life' opened up the glorious future to us, their love and their respect returned a hundred-fold.

Nothing was changed, but ourselves. And we had only changed a little bit. We had merely found room in our hearts for others, for a few of our fellow men as sorely in need of understanding friendship as ourselves. And we had found a little corner, with room to grow, for God.

We had found a little faith.

A miracle, to quote the dictionary loosely, is something which can't happen, but does. . .once. . .and is not likely to happen again. This takes what happened to us right out of the miracle class. It 'couldn't happen'. . .but it did. Not once, but 120,000 times. And it continues to happen every day.

Admitting God into the house of our soul is not a miracle. Actually, God was with us all the time.

We merely found Him there.

What is the Prudent Reserve?
The A.A. guideline document produced by A.A. World Services, Inc., suggests a prudent reserve for a Central Office or Intergroup be fixed somewhere between one and twelve months' operating expenses. The prudent reserve is not available for everyday use. It is only meant for startup and twelve months of operating expenses, in an emergency situation.

The Southern Wisconsin Deaf Access Committee needs to rotate its members. We are searching for two AA members to act as Co-Chairs, a treasure, and a liaison person to work with Members of AA Deaf community. They can email SWDAC at: milwareadeafaccess@gmail.com

Fox Point Group 86: Reaching Out, Join Us on Zoom Monday Evenings.

We are doing a group inventory, looking at ways in which we can be more accessible.

Current members with a wide range of sobriety, join our weekly meetings to discuss topics that impact all people in recovery thus providing a healthy balance for all.

We warmly welcome all genders, sexual preferences, ethnicities, and ages.

We meet on-line with ZOOM Monday Nights at 8:00 and will do so until we resume our "live" meetings at the North Shore Congregational Church in Fox Point.

Stop on by! We open up around 7:45 and begin at 8:00. If you are shy about "Zooming," just come on in and listen. It's Alcoholics Anonymous.

You will find a warm welcome to a lively and amiable group living one day at a time.

Registration at the Door is $25.

A.A. Conferences: "Why do we have to pay?" Conferences are self-supporting. The costs of the events are paid through ticket sales (registration). No baskets are passed during the conference. Ideally, the event is planned to break even; therefore, the registration cost is nominal compared to a weekend worth of entertainment elsewhere. Attendance is voluntary and as responsible A.A. members we pay our own way—in keeping with A.A.'s Seventh Tradition.

TRUTHS BECOME CLEAR

"Beloved, let us love one another. . .for love is of God."--St. John

THIS great truth becomes more clear to me each day that I live as a practicing member of AA. No one can deny the fact that AA performs miracles. Anyone who takes the trouble to look can see it at any AA meeting.

I never cease to be thrilled and to marvel at the transformations in AA and the unfolding of personalities. It is as if we had been lying dormant all these years, then as if we had been touched suddenly by a magic wand, we awaken to this new life. I liken alcoholics to an egg whose shell must be broken that the living chick may emerge. So it is with us, when we sincerely try to help another person we gain a new understanding of him and ourselves.

Alcoholics, I believe, are fortunate people, who because of, and in spite of their disease, gain a victory over self. When we turn our lives and our wills over to that Higher Power, love of fellow creature will inevitably follow and the peace we all sought and never found will be ours.

Character building does not consist in the elimination of vice but in the cultivation of virtue; not in the casting out of sin but in the deepening of love. When we accept this power, then we find emotional security at last. I thank God for this program and know that in order to keep it for myself, I must pass it on to others.

Into the Morning Light of a New Day

By: Anonymous | Manhasset, L.I., New York, June 1952

"OUT of the depths have I cried unto Thee. . ."

Sunday afternoon, December 21, 1947. . .sitting before a window high up in the Book-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit. . .the end of six days during which I hardly knew night from day. . .only a few brief moments of freedom from blackout. . .and those moments torture.

Get the window up, the room's high enough. One quick plunge will do it. There's nothing else left, no other way out, no hope, no use making another try. This is it. . .end of the whole nightmare. At least I won't have to wake up once more and wonder how soon the bar opens. A few more drinks and I'll have the nerve. . .a running plunge headfirst at the window. A side alley down there. . .good. . .no mess on the main street.

Sorry for my wife and the kids, but it's better this way. They could not stand anymore of this. . .they shouldn't have to.

"The effectual, fervent prayer of righteous man availeth much. . ."

Yesterday afternoon, wasn't it, that maid came in to clean up the room? What was it she said? Oh, yes. . .why didn't I stop drinking like this. I said I couldn't. She wanted to know why I didn't ask the good Lord to help me? I said I guessed He must be fed up with me; you ask Him for me. "Mister, I'll do that when I get home."

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. . ."

Well, let's get on with it. Finish these drinks first. No use thinking any more; that's all over. No more "angles" on new ways to stop. I've tried 'em all. I'm licked, finished. The hell of it is, I love my wife. Sounds crazy, but it's true. Must love me, or she'd never have stuck this far, still hoping I'd come out of this. I promised her this trip would be different. . .then I took that cocktail just to bolster my ego. Always it was just going to be a couple. . .and always it was the same. This time. . . Monday noon to Sunday afternoon. . .blank. Except for the moment I talked with that maid yesterday. She was the only one who wanted to talk with me this week.

"Underneath are the everlasting arms. . ."

Couple years ago my wife asked me to look into this Alcoholics Anonymous thing. Funny I should think of it now. I remember I'd brushed it off, said it was for drunks, some sort of hallelujah outfit. . .not for me. I wasn't a drunk not me. Well, I sure am now. Hell, maybe those AA guys have something; I wouldn't know. But if they are sober, it doesn't make much difference what system they use. My "system" brought me. . .well, right here in front of this window, journey's end.

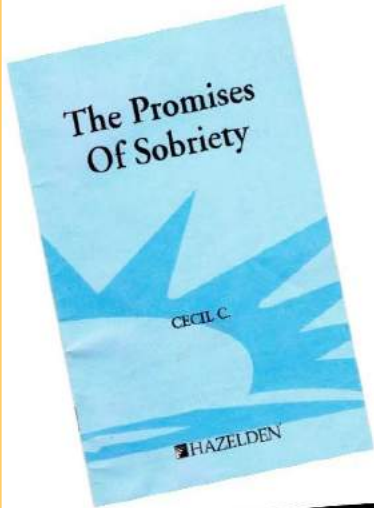

Wonder how those fellows do it? Not for me, of course. . .nothing will help me now. . .but. . .I wonder if this AA outfit is here in Detroit? Sure. . .there it is. . .there is the number. . . Just for the hell of it, I'll give 'em a ring. Somebody to talk to, anyway.

"Who saveth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with mercy and loving kindness. . ."

"Look, fella, will you promise to stay in that room for half an hour? I'm sending somebody to see you. . . Sure it's a bad day, but they'll be there. . . You just stay put. . .never mind the shape you are in, these two are alcoholic Phi Beta Kappas. . ."

I wonder if that chambermaid will ever know what her prayer may have done? Probably she doesn't. But God knows and I know. And I know now that my prayer for another, like hers, will be heard, and that there is a way out of that valley into the morning light of a new day.

Gifts of Sobriety

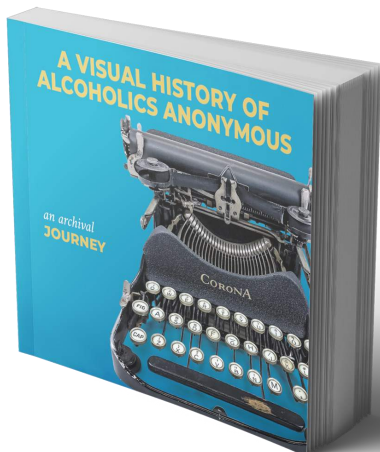

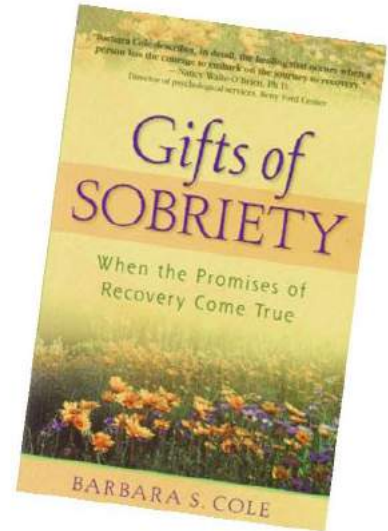

When the Promises of Recovery Come True

"Why try?" we sometimes ask ourselves when faced with the uncertainties and hard work of recovery. But the answers are all around us, in the rich and spirited lives of those who have made the journey before us, each one a member of the joyful possibilities that await. These possibilities come alive in Gifts of Sobriety, a book that gives immediate meaning to the Big Book's promise: "We are going to know a new freedom and a new happiness."
