but to GOD! Although my sponsor had not the power to close that umbrella, the Big Book tells me that God could and would if he were sought! (Those little fiends must have been trembling down there!). The sunlight of the Spirit was about to shine on those little fiends – for they cannot survive in the sunlight of God’s Truth, because an alcoholic cannot drink on the truth!

The Fifth Step promises (p. 75) tell us that we now begin to have a spiritual experience. Well, the realization that God is soon-to-remove the very things that blocked me from seeing and acting on the truth-in-drink indeed speaks to a radical inner transformation! I believe the main goal of this vital step is to allow us (me) to realize exactly what dominant inner forces have blocking the truth-in-drink; only then will I know exactly what imperfections to ask God to remove in Steps Six and Seven.

It was very important that I acted before my mind decided to remember only what it wanted to remember. I believe that the Big Book timetable is very important here! We are told to do Step Four ‘at once,’ Step Five at ‘First opportunity,’ review for a short period and ‘then’ (not later) do Step Six, go right into Step Seven ‘when ready.’ Steps Five, Six and Seven are often referred to as the ‘same day steps.’

I am very happy that my sponsor, Carl, helped me close that umbrella via the Big Book directions. I haven’t had a drink of booze since! ~~ dren. When we showed up at our babysitting AA meeting, we filled the daycare.

We brought our kids to sober Christmas parties where they got presents from Santa and we all ate and danced. We went to sober Pow Wows and to campgrounds, where our kids played with other AAs’ children. Sometimes we left the kids at home and got carloads of AA people to sobriety conventions.

Sleeping six to a room, we would talk and giggle into the wee hours of the morning. All of my children’s birthday parties were sober events with my AA friends and their kids. We were all learning to be a happy family.

When I was two years sober, that same sponsor told me I was ready to be a GSR. Boy, I was afraid. I was sure that I wasn’t smart enough to do the business of AA. I had been a GSR for only two months when I attended my first area assembly. I had so many questions that my DCM told me to just go to the microphone and ask. No way! I was too scared. So I learned to listen and eventually my questions were answered.

It was hard not knowing how it all worked, but hanging out with other GSRs and area servants was a hoot. We ate candy, drank lots of coffee and whispered amongst ourselves in a less than spiritual way. I loved it.

I have been involved with general service ever since. I’ve grown as a person and count my general service colleagues among the most spiritual AA members that I have met. Love and tolerance is truly our code here. Working with and supporting people I do not always agree with has proven to be a huge catalyst of growth for me. Hanging out with them I laugh and cry with joy. And my fear of the microphone has mostly disappeared. I find it’s the place where the spiritual rubber hits the road.

Carrying the AA message on a larger scale is a great feeling. It’s so far from the feeling I had 14 years ago when my daughter saw me trying to kill myself. I insist on having fun in sobriety today and AA has shown me the way.

The "Clubs" and "Rooms" listed here are not A.A. Clubs. A.A. DOES NOT HAVE CLUBS! A.A. neither endorses nor opposes such clubs. These are social clubs established by groups or individuals who are themselves recovering alcoholics. The A.A. group meeting at the club is available to any alcoholic - club member or not. The group is separate from the club and pays a fair rent for the use of the club facilities. Even though the group meets in a club that may be composed exclusively of A.A. members, and many members of the group may be club members, too, the relationship of the A.A. group itself to the club should be the same as it would be to a church, hospital, school, etc., in which it might rent space for its meetings.
